

CMX 304: Making Comics 1

VIII: Mini-Comics project

Nick Sousanis

Sousanis@sfsu.edu

Tw: nsousanis

Spring 2021

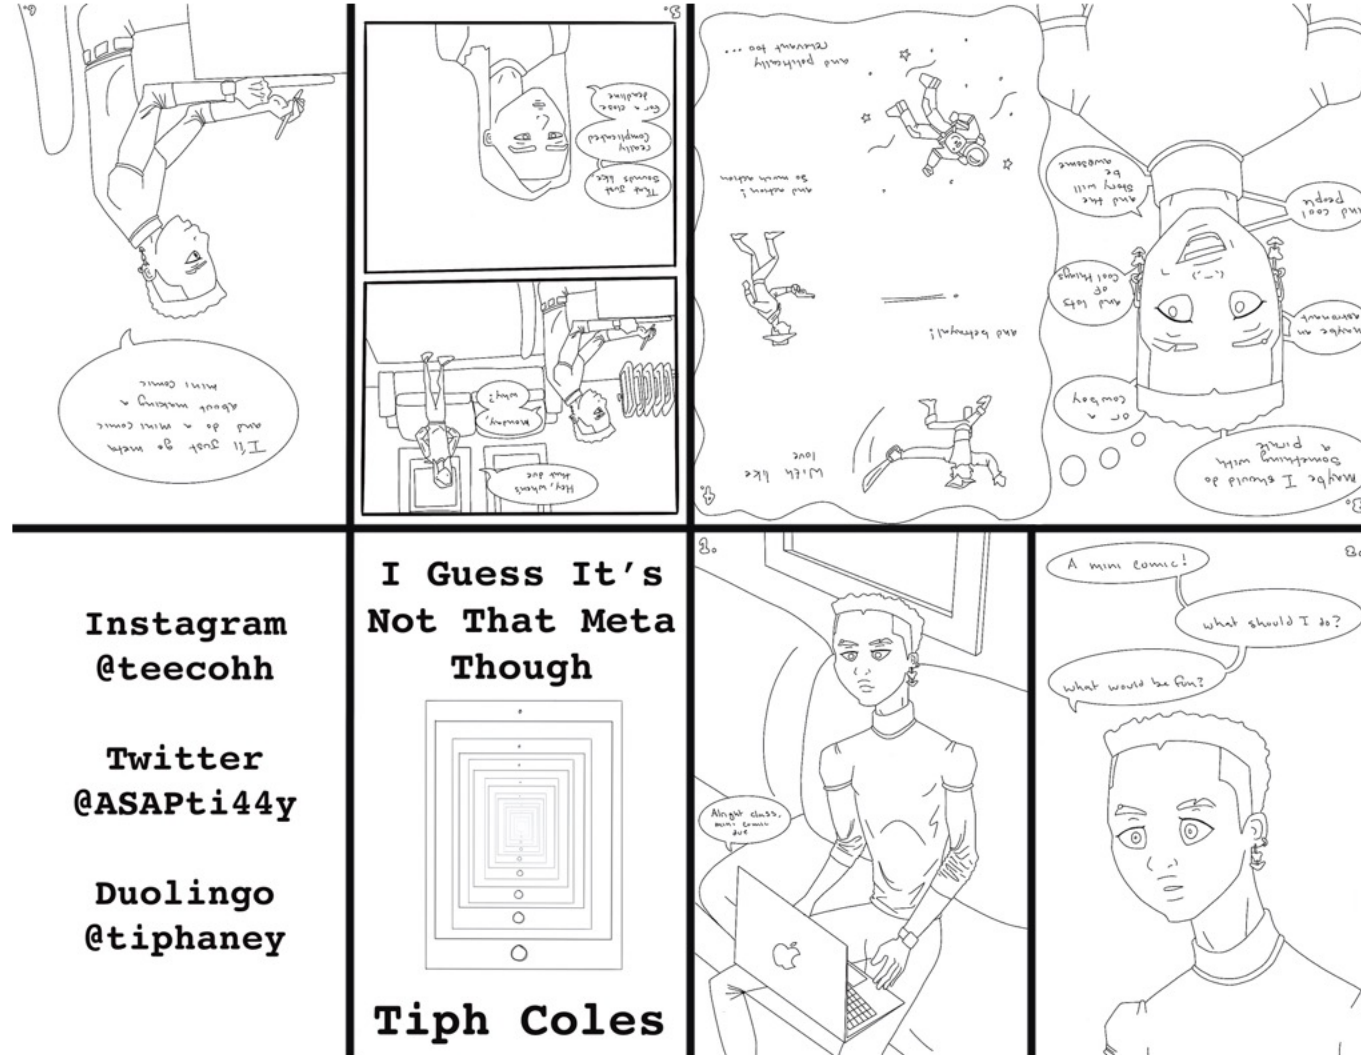

San Francisco State University

Mini-Comic:

Make either a straightforward or experimental mini-comic on any subject as long as you can make it in multiples to distribute. We'll workshop formats, design, and look at a range of examples prior.

Tiph

Mini Comic Project

Continued on next slide...

Mini Comic Project Reflection

This Project was an opportunity for me to try my hand at cut out comics. While cutout comics may not be something I focus on the rest of the semester, it was a challenge that I enjoyed and the exaggerated cartoon style is something I may take with me in my future comics making. The mini comic format was a challenge to create a whole story in such a small space, but I am satisfied with what I have created and I enjoyed figuring out how to create cutouts and work within such a small space.

Mini Comic Midterm

One day in GSA

I am proud of this project for a number of reasons. I feel like I got into a great flow while drawing this comic, and am particularly happy with my representation of my colleague, who was kind enough to talk to me about her experience as a queer person coming to the US under such bananas circumstances. I got to tell a story that I have been wanting to tell in the comics form, and made Chi laugh. Mission accomplished.

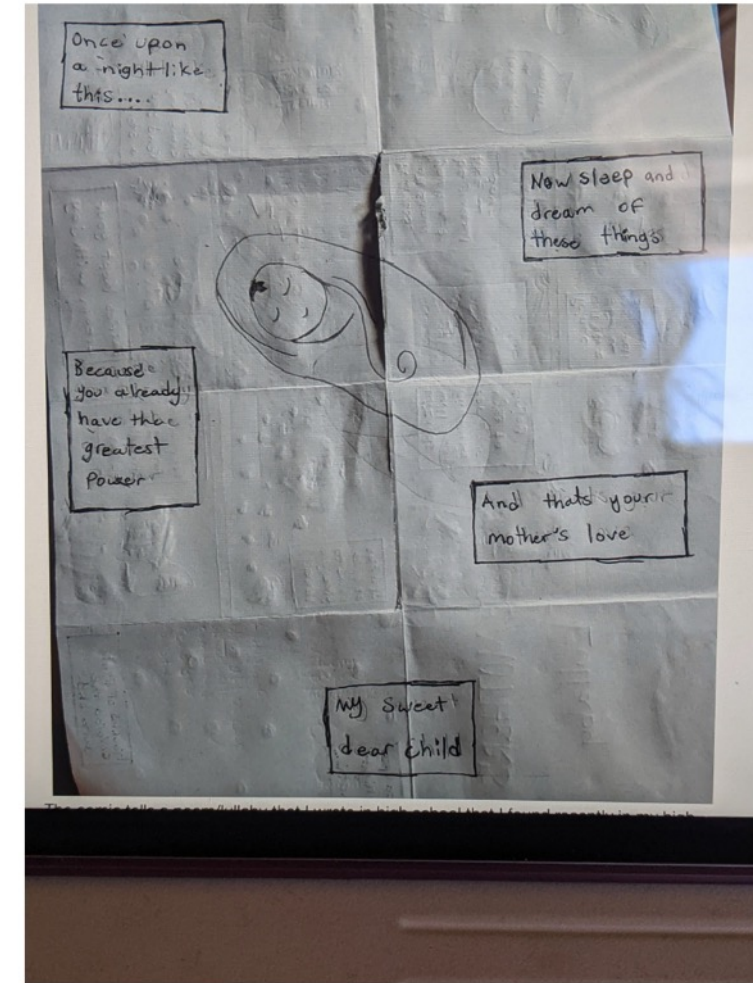

Jade

Response Gallery 21: Mini-Comic Project

I really liked this project because I was able to get my old High school poem incorporated into a comic. So the drawings are the description of what the poem is being said like if its getting read to you. While the back of it is the baby that you are reading it too.

Mini Comic Project (part 1)

Once again revisiting the mini-comic format I decided to create a short goofy comic on an astronaut in space with two others that forget he was there.

Mini Comic Project (part 2)

Once again revisiting the mini-comic format I decided to create a short goofy comic on an astronaut in space with two others that forget he was there.

Natasha

TO ... IN REALITY, THE WORD "LATINO" IGNORES RACE ALL TOGETHER, AND REFERS TO A PLACE OF ORIGIN.

"LATINO" COMES FROM LATIN AMERICA, WHICH ALSO INCLUDES BRAZIL, THOUGH THEY SPEAK PORTUGUESE

SPEAKING SPANISH, HOWEVER, DOES NOT ALWAYS EQUAL "LATINO"

THE UNITED STATES' CENSUS

WHAT DO WE DO WITH ALL THE MIXED PEOPLE WHO SPEAK SPANISH

LUMP THEM TOGETHER AND CREATE MORE PROBLEMS

GREAT QUESTION YOUNGER ME! BECAUSE IT'S NOT YOUR RACE!

MILCA

REMEMBER THIS WHACK QUESTION? WHAT IS YOUR RACE?

- ☐ BLACK/AFRICAN AM.
- ☐ WHITE
- ☐ AGIAN
- ☐ LATINO/HISPANIC

S.A.T.s?

THE REMEMBER ME * HIGH SCHOOL

OKAY, BUT WHAT EVEN IS "LATINO"?

HEY, I'M TACHA, OR "CHELA"

OKAY... "GUEYITA" BUT MOSTLY TAYGH

BESIDES BRAZILIANS, MANY INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES DO NOT SPEAK SPANISH, BUT INDEED ARE FROM LATIN AMERICA.

ALLIACHU

UACHA!

NILZINZINÉ

WOW! SO WHAT AM I REALLY?

I DON'T KNOW BUT GIVEN THE NATURE OF COLONIAL LATIN AMERICA...

MOST LIKELY A MUTT.

MILCA

MILCA IS A SODA FROM NICARAGUA

IT IS VERY SWEET + DELICIOUS

WORDS AND IDENTITY!

YIKES

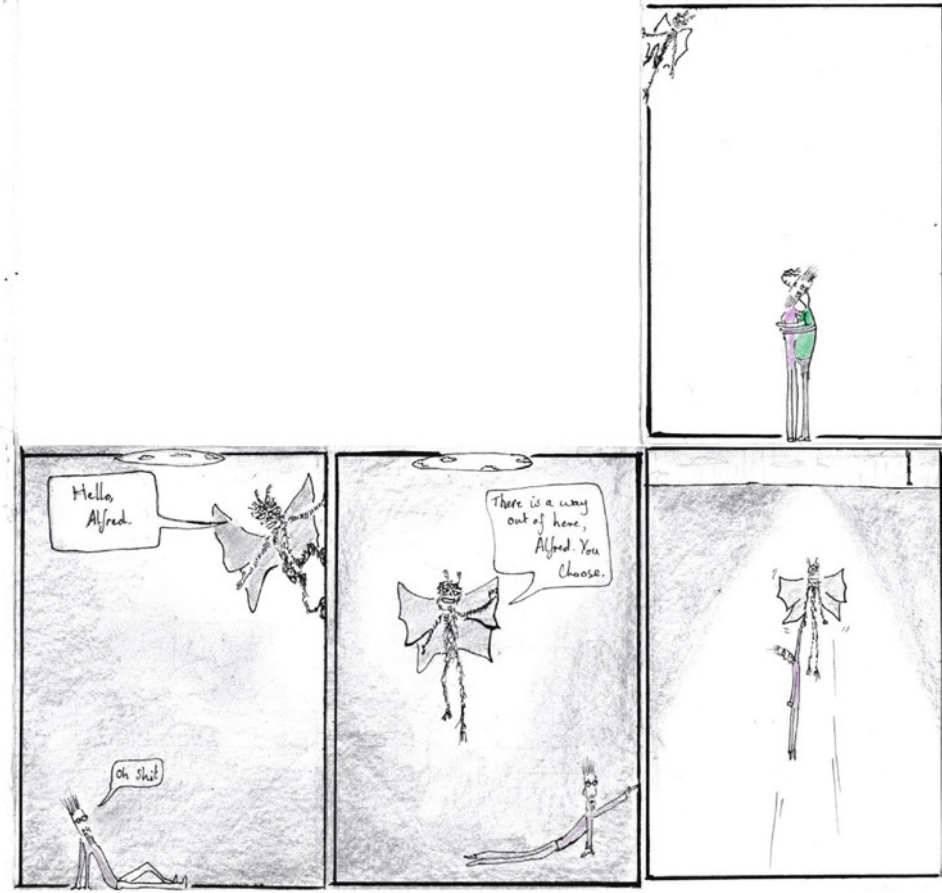

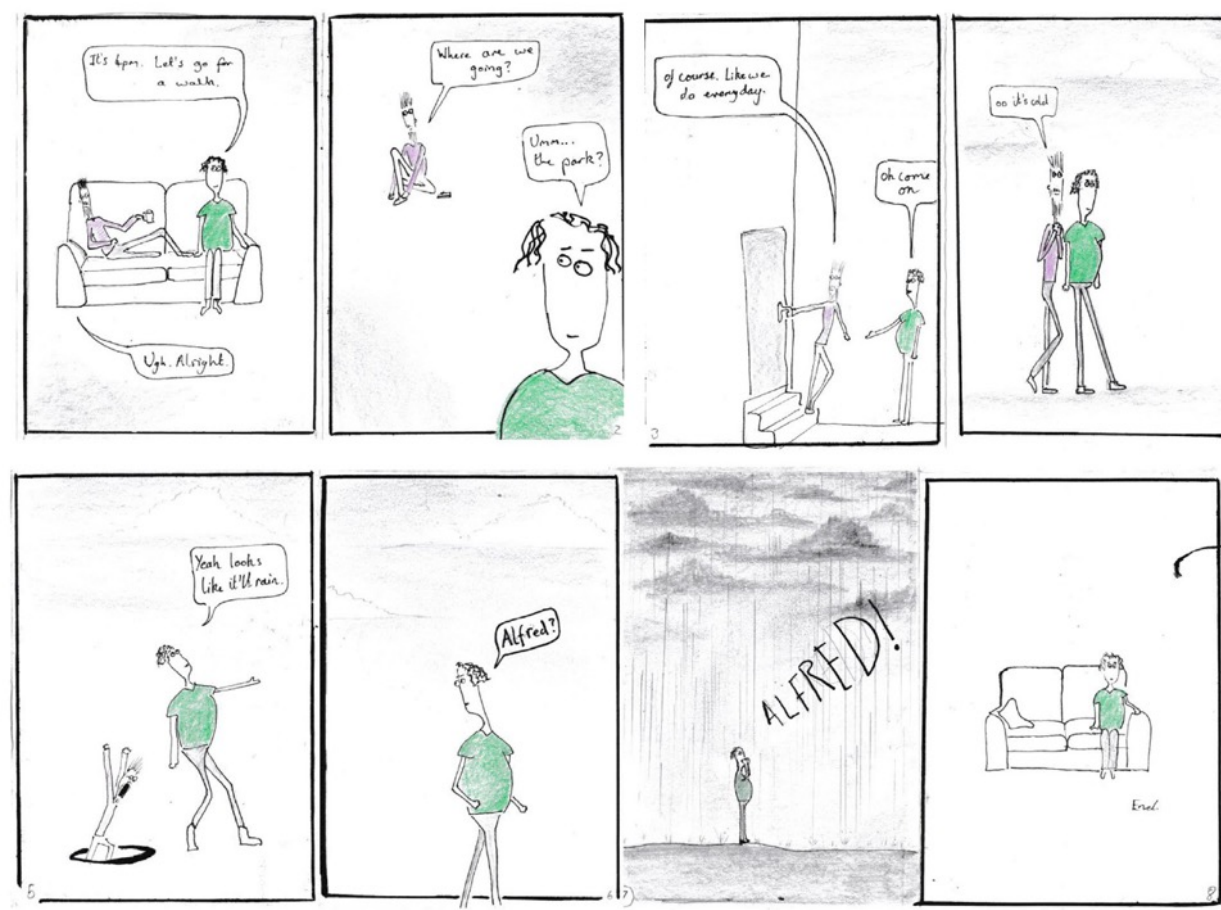

Andrew

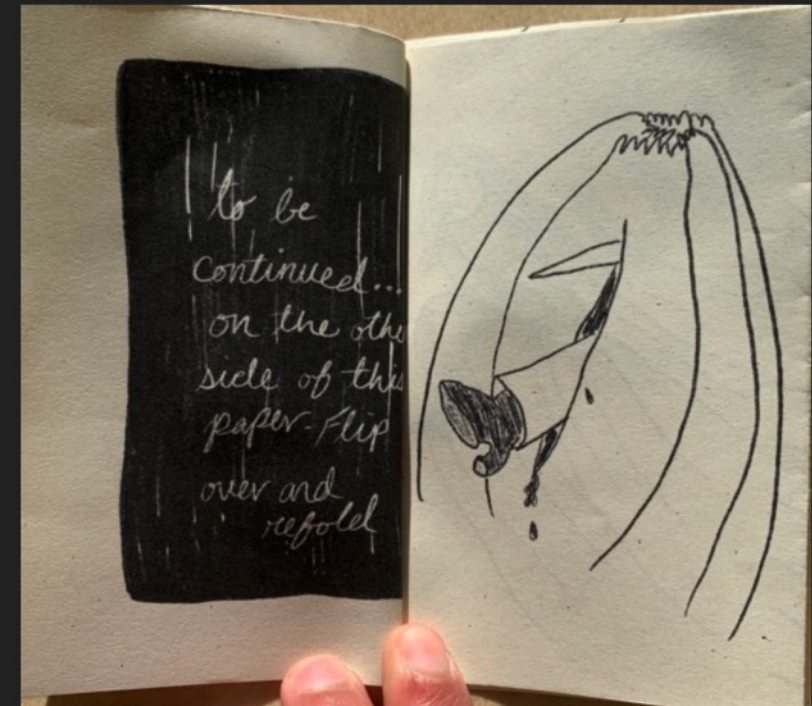

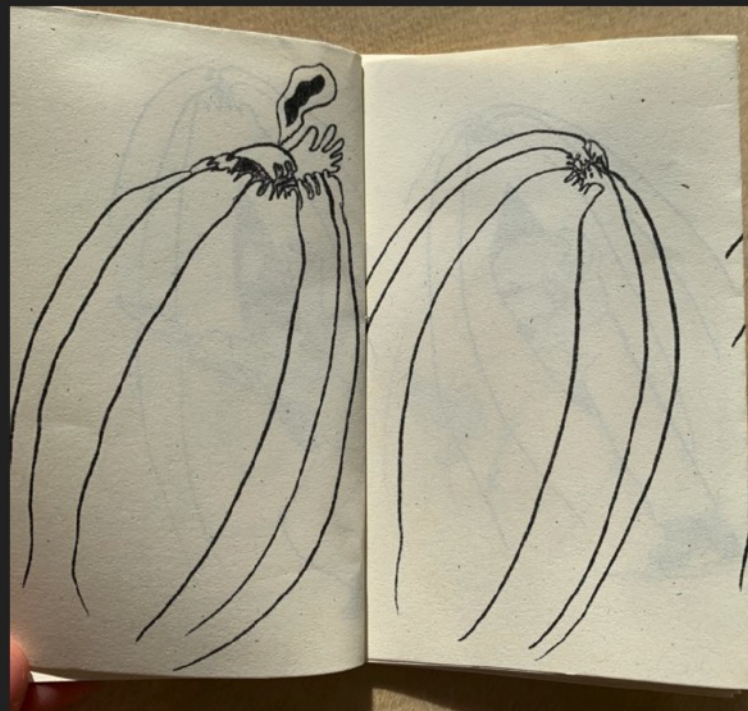

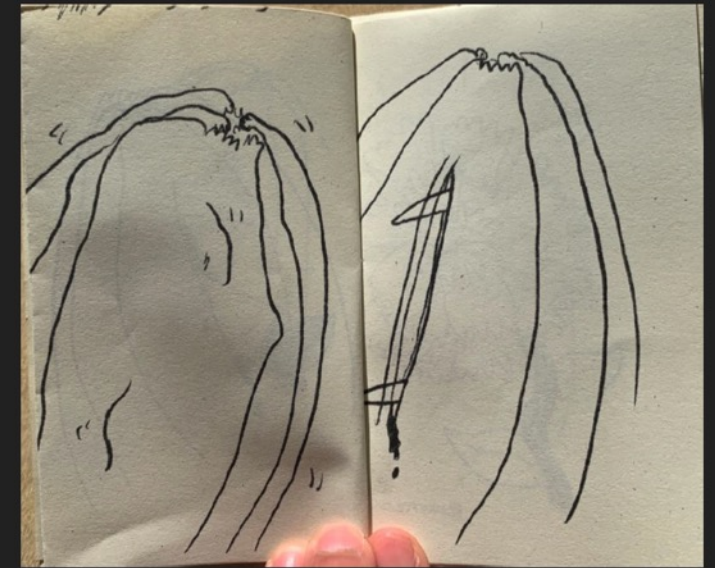

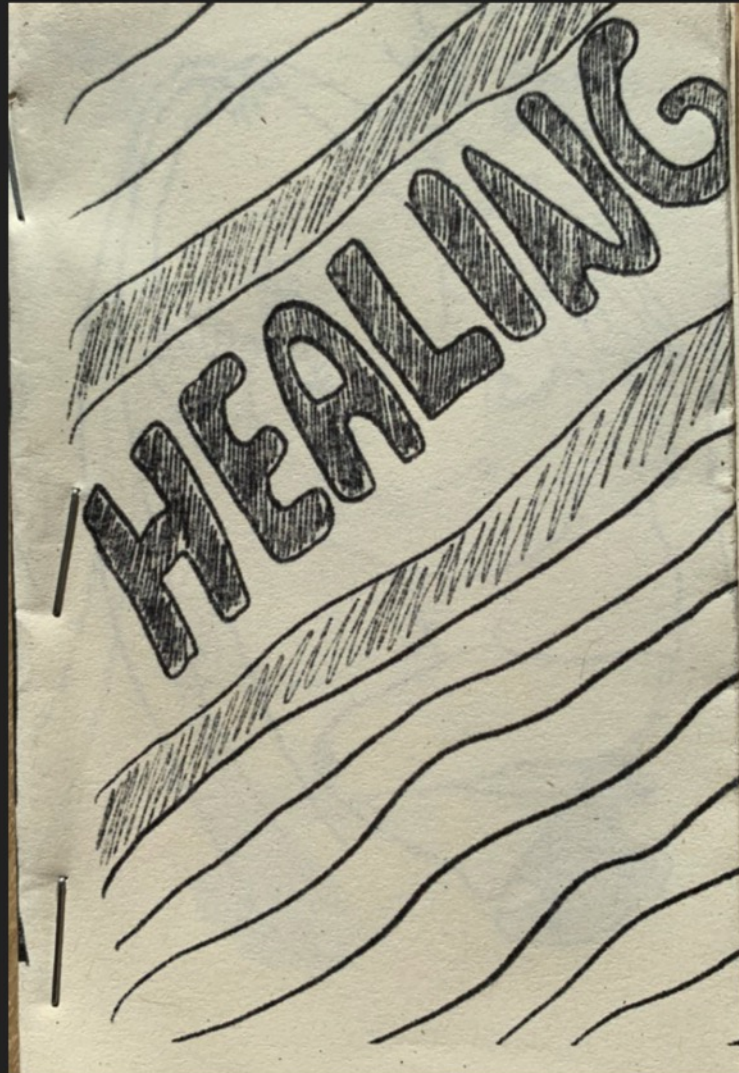

Evie

MINI COMIC PROJECT

Mini Comic Project

I really enjoyed making this mini comic. I wrote this is one sitting while I was in a bummed mood at work. It's about how having experienced trauma can really hold you back. It can take over your mind, & you really have to fight that to think clearly and moved forward and heal.